ALMOND

The popular French bistro with an un-Hamptons-like vibe is popular among locals, tourists and celebrities for its locally sourced cuisine. The Bridgehampton hot spot's hand-carved bar, classic white subway tile, and 100-year-old tin ceilings complement delicious dishes like the Berkshire pork chop Milanese with smoked fingerling potatoes and asparagus topped with Jane Maguire's mushrooms. 1 Ocean Road, Bridgehampton, 537-5665; almondrestaurant.com
